Thoughts from Wednesday Evening Bible Study:

Hebrews 1:3

The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven.

Jesus is seated on the throne at the right hand of God. We are his body and are united to him. We cannot be separated from him. We are also seated 'with' him (Eph 2:6).
